

Exploring Collaboration Opportunities in Chemistry Between the University of Alabama and Aristotle University

College of
Arts & Sciences
Department of Chemistry

Kevin H. Shaughnessy, Professor and Chair kshaughn@ua.edu, <http://chemistry.ua.edu>

College of
Arts & Sciences
Department of Chemistry

Collaboration Opportunities

- Student Exchanges
 - Semesters abroad
 - Research exchanges
- Faculty Exchanges
 - Teaching courses
 - Research collaborations
- Research Opportunities
 - Faculty collaborations
 - Use of specialized equipment

College of
Arts & Sciences
Department of Chemistry

College of
Arts & Sciences
Department of Chemistry

Hosts

Host: Prof. Konstantinos Litinas
Laboratory of Organic Chemistry

Collaborator: Asst. Prof. Ioannis Lykakis
Laboratory of Organic Chemistry

Catalysts for organic transformations

Itinerary

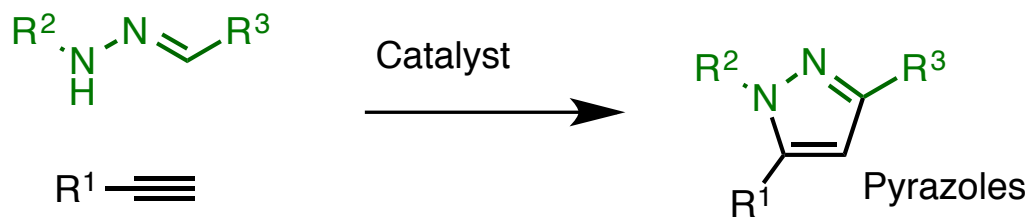

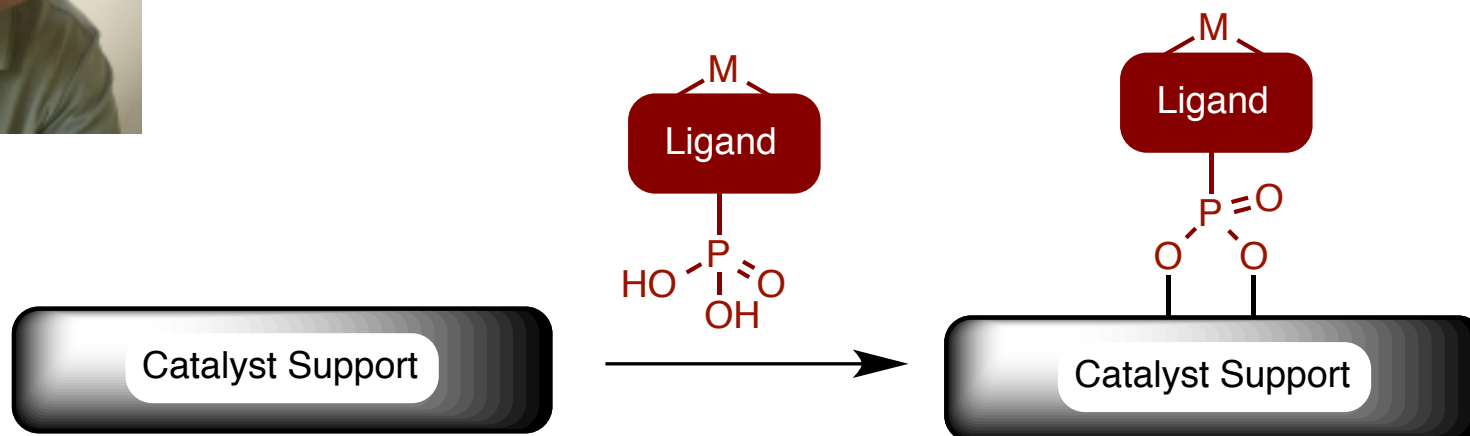

- May 7th
- Prof. Papoutsis-President of the Chemistry Department
- Prof. Aslanidis-Laboratory of Inorganic Chemistry
- Prof. Kyriakidis-Laboratory of Biochemistry
- Prof. Varella-e-Learning European Community Project
- Lecture to chemistry faculty and graduate students
- Lunch with faculty
- May 8th
- Prof. Gallos-Laboratory of Organic Chemistry
- Prof. Lykakis-Laboratory of Organic Chemistry
- Prof. Zografos-Laboratory of Organic Chemistry
- Prof. Litinas-Laboratory of Organic Chemistry
- Meeting with graduate students
- Lunch with faculty
- 12th Greece-Cyprus Chemistry Congress

Outcomes

Prof. Ioannis Lykakis
Laboratory of Organic Chemistry

Football Diplomacy

Acknowledgements

Prof. Konstantinos Litinas
Laboratory of Organic Chemistry

Dean Olin and College Staff

Prof. Tatiana Summers

